Applicable to: Mercy Care DD Behavioral Health Providers

The Division of Developmental Disabilities, in collaboration with its sub-contracted health plans UnitedHealthcare Community Plan and Mercy Care, is offering a conference for behavior analysts, behavioral health and medical providers who are part of their networks. The conference topics will focus on best practices for working with individuals who have both a developmental disability and a behavioral health diagnosis. The goal of this conference is to enhance provider competency, offer opportunities for professional development, improve member outcomes, and bridge gaps in knowledge for the professionals who serve individuals with developmental disabilities and their families.
